

CAV It was a gutsy move for manager Tadd Cortell and wine director Pamela S. Busch to open their wine bar so near Hotel Biron last September. But Cav is hunting a different crowd. With pendant lamps, zinc tables, and a high-design logo, Cav courts those who seek a sleek setting with their wine. Busch's list features bottles from familiar regions but is heavy on esoteric locales like Croatia and South Africa. 1666 MARKET ST, SF, 415-437-1770

Pamela S. Busch enjoys a quiet moment at her wine bar, Cav.